

R. U. STRIKE CALLED OFF.

(Continued from First Page.)

TO INVESTIGATE MANAGERS.

Federal Grand Jury at Chicago to Get Special Instructions.

(By Associated Press)
CHICAGO, July 13.—Judge Grosscup announced this morning that he would give the Federal Grand Jury supplemental instructions to-day directing an investigation of the railway managers.

Europe, it could be done here in America. We must have strict arbitration here."

In furtherance of his idea of the moral force of the Government, which he terms arbitration, Mr. Gompers seemed to think that the strike must be carried on for some time yet, when he said: "There must be contending forces in order to have an arbitration. The President must appoint his committee and they must come here. They have full power to act. They will have to closely examine this whole matter and then report to the President and to Congress, and their action will be taken by that body. If the strike is stopped at any time it will then be settled and the committee will have nothing to report."

SOVEREIGN IS JUBILANT.

Ohio Militia Arrest Thirty Leaders at Cincinnati.

(By Associated Press)

CHICAGO, July 13.—While the other labor leaders were in conference last night Mr. Sovereign was enjoying a cigar alone in his room in the Sherman House. When questioned about the new turn of affairs he exclaimed:

"This is a great victory for the Knights of Labor. No one thought of it until the Knights suggested it, and it will settle the strike, as it is good as won now. I cannot tell who the arbitrators will be, but this is certain, that Carroll D. Wright will be one of them. The O'Neill law provides that the Commissioner of Labor shall be a member of any committee appointed under its provisions."

The other two members are named by the President, and the only restriction is that one of the men shall be appointed from the State in which the trouble exists. I had a long conversation over the long-distance telephone with Mr. Hayes, after the President gave his decision in the matter, and the whole scope and significance of the law were explained to me.

"As I understand it, the Committee has all the powers of a Congressional investigating committee. It may summon witnesses and compel them to testify of the matter in dispute, even to the extent of producing the books of the Company. In this way all phases of the controversy will be brought out; it is true that the Committee has no power to enforce its findings in the matter, but that is true of any arbitration. The arbitrators have the power merely to investigate and declare a finding, and the parties may or may not abide by that finding. I believe that this Committee can compel Pullman to show his books, and the result will be that the public will be given all the facts in the controversy between him and the employees. It makes no difference what Mr. Pullman wants to do or not, or whether he thinks that he has nothing to arbitrate. The Committee will have all the power necessary to get out all the facts and the public can then draw its own conclusion."

STOCK-YARDS MEN RETURN.

Strikers Getting Their Old Places on Reporting Promptly.

(By Associated Press)
CHICAGO, July 13.—Strikers were not interfering to-day with the work at the stock yards packing-houses. Stock was being received and slaughtering was being done in all the larger houses. Many of the strikers were at work. Some of the smaller houses and the places of others were filled by strangers. The strike was looked upon as broken and it was stated that further trouble was looked for.

At 10 o'clock this morning Morris 500 and Armour 800.

Among the stock yards strikers who returned to work this morning were twenty clerks and yardmasters. Other employees will be given their positions if they report promptly.

A few butchers and carpenters left their work this morning, but they did not add to the seriousness of the situation.

Armour brought twelve butchers from Milwaukee this morning and was only three short of his usual force.

SURPRISE IN THIS CITY.

Labor Men Think the Call for Arbitration Caused Debts' Action.

The news that President Deb's had declared the strike off was a big surprise to labor men generally in this city. Various theories were assigned for the cause, but the one most generally accepted was that the calling off was really due to the success of the General Executive Board of the Knights of Labor in prevailing on President Cleveland to appoint an arbitration commission.

"The strike has gone the way of all the others," said Ernest Bohm, Secretary of the Central Labor Federation, "and it is impossible to estimate the effect it will have on labor circles generally."

"In my opinion it will open the eyes of the workingmen and show them that so far as strikes are concerned nothing can be gained by trades unionism. It points to the first remedy which the Socialists have been claiming all along. Let strikes alone, and do all the fighting at the ballot-box. Until proper labor men are sent to Congress and State legislatures nothing can be accomplished."

After calling off the strike by President Deb's has saved Gompers from a Waterloo. He started for Chicago to settle the strike, and on arriving there found that he had been forced into such a tight place that he was actually cornered. He had been forced into a general strike directed world-wide. Doubtless President Deb's had good reason for the calling off.

He had no time to waste for a moment that the strikers were beaten and General Secretary Reichenbach of the National Guards-Workers Union came to his rescue. In this way he got a chance to return graciously. I suppose he will base his decision on the action of President Cleveland in announcing the strike off, and the fact that the strikers get beaten with the whole force of the United States against them." Secretary Arthur Murphy of the P. W. U. said.

He added: "I am in the way of the strike, and on arriving there found that he had been forced into such a tight place that he was actually cornered. He had been forced into a general strike directed world-wide. Doubtless President Deb's had good reason for the calling off."

He had no time to waste for a moment that the strikers were beaten and General Secretary Reichenbach of the National Guards-Workers Union came to his rescue. In this way he got a chance to return graciously. I suppose he will base his decision on the action of President Cleveland in announcing the strike off, and the fact that the strikers get beaten with the whole force of the United States against them."

Secretary Arthur Murphy of the P. W. U. said.

He added: "I am in the way of the strike, and on arriving there found that he had been forced into such a tight place that he was actually cornered. He had been forced into a general strike directed world-wide. Doubtless President Deb's had good reason for the calling off."

He had no time to waste for a moment that the strikers were beaten and General Secretary Reichenbach of the National Guards-Workers Union came to his rescue. In this way he got a chance to return graciously. I suppose he will base his decision on the action of President Cleveland in announcing the strike off, and the fact that the strikers get beaten with the whole force of the United States against them."

Secretary Arthur Murphy of the P. W. U. said.

He added: "I am in the way of the strike, and on arriving there found that he had been forced into such a tight place that he was actually cornered. He had been forced into a general strike directed world-wide. Doubtless President Deb's had good reason for the calling off."

He had no time to waste for a moment that the strikers were beaten and General Secretary Reichenbach of the National Guards-Workers Union came to his rescue. In this way he got a chance to return graciously. I suppose he will base his decision on the action of President Cleveland in announcing the strike off, and the fact that the strikers get beaten with the whole force of the United States against them."

Secretary Arthur Murphy of the P. W. U. said.

He added: "I am in the way of the strike, and on arriving there found that he had been forced into such a tight place that he was actually cornered. He had been forced into a general strike directed world-wide. Doubtless President Deb's had good reason for the calling off."

He had no time to waste for a moment that the strikers were beaten and General Secretary Reichenbach of the National Guards-Workers Union came to his rescue. In this way he got a chance to return graciously. I suppose he will base his decision on the action of President Cleveland in announcing the strike off, and the fact that the strikers get beaten with the whole force of the United States against them."

Secretary Arthur Murphy of the P. W. U. said.

He added: "I am in the way of the strike, and on arriving there found that he had been forced into such a tight place that he was actually cornered. He had been forced into a general strike directed world-wide. Doubtless President Deb's had good reason for the calling off."

He had no time to waste for a moment that the strikers were beaten and General Secretary Reichenbach of the National Guards-Workers Union came to his rescue. In this way he got a chance to return graciously. I suppose he will base his decision on the action of President Cleveland in announcing the strike off, and the fact that the strikers get beaten with the whole force of the United States against them."

Secretary Arthur Murphy of the P. W. U. said.

He added: "I am in the way of the strike, and on arriving there found that he had been forced into such a tight place that he was actually cornered. He had been forced into a general strike directed world-wide. Doubtless President Deb's had good reason for the calling off."

He had no time to waste for a moment that the strikers were beaten and General Secretary Reichenbach of the National Guards-Workers Union came to his rescue. In this way he got a chance to return graciously. I suppose he will base his decision on the action of President Cleveland in announcing the strike off, and the fact that the strikers get beaten with the whole force of the United States against them."

Secretary Arthur Murphy of the P. W. U. said.

He added: "I am in the way of the strike, and on arriving there found that he had been forced into such a tight place that he was actually cornered. He had been forced into a general strike directed world-wide. Doubtless President Deb's had good reason for the calling off."

He had no time to waste for a moment that the strikers were beaten and General Secretary Reichenbach of the National Guards-Workers Union came to his rescue. In this way he got a chance to return graciously. I suppose he will base his decision on the action of President Cleveland in announcing the strike off, and the fact that the strikers get beaten with the whole force of the United States against them."

Secretary Arthur Murphy of the P. W. U. said.

He added: "I am in the way of the strike, and on arriving there found that he had been forced into such a tight place that he was actually cornered. He had been forced into a general strike directed world-wide. Doubtless President Deb's had good reason for the calling off."

He had no time to waste for a moment that the strikers were beaten and General Secretary Reichenbach of the National Guards-Workers Union came to his rescue. In this way he got a chance to return graciously. I suppose he will base his decision on the action of President Cleveland in announcing the strike off, and the fact that the strikers get beaten with the whole force of the United States against them."

Secretary Arthur Murphy of the P. W. U. said.

He added: "I am in the way of the strike, and on arriving there found that he had been forced into such a tight place that he was actually cornered. He had been forced into a general strike directed world-wide. Doubtless President Deb's had good reason for the calling off."

He had no time to waste for a moment that the strikers were beaten and General Secretary Reichenbach of the National Guards-Workers Union came to his rescue. In this way he got a chance to return graciously. I suppose he will base his decision on the action of President Cleveland in announcing the strike off, and the fact that the strikers get beaten with the whole force of the United States against them."

Secretary Arthur Murphy of the P. W. U. said.

He added: "I am in the way of the strike, and on arriving there found that he had been forced into such a tight place that he was actually cornered. He had been forced into a general strike directed world-wide. Doubtless President Deb's had good reason for the calling off."

He had no time to waste for a moment that the strikers were beaten and General Secretary Reichenbach of the National Guards-Workers Union came to his rescue. In this way he got a chance to return graciously. I suppose he will base his decision on the action of President Cleveland in announcing the strike off, and the fact that the strikers get beaten with the whole force of the United States against them."

Secretary Arthur Murphy of the P. W. U. said.

He added: "I am in the way of the strike, and on arriving there found that he had been forced into such a tight place that he was actually cornered. He had been forced into a general strike directed world-wide. Doubtless President Deb's had good reason for the calling off."

He had no time to waste for a moment that the strikers were beaten and General Secretary Reichenbach of the National Guards-Workers Union came to his rescue. In this way he got a chance to return graciously. I suppose he will base his decision on the action of President Cleveland in announcing the strike off, and the fact that the strikers get beaten with the whole force of the United States against them."

Secretary Arthur Murphy of the P. W. U. said.

He added: "I am in the way of the strike, and on arriving there found that he had been forced into such a tight place that he was actually cornered. He had been forced into a general strike directed world-wide. Doubtless President Deb's had good reason for the calling off."

He had no time to waste for a moment that the strikers were beaten and General Secretary Reichenbach of the National Guards-Workers Union came to his rescue. In this way he got a chance to return graciously. I suppose he will base his decision on the action of President Cleveland in announcing the strike off, and the fact that the strikers get beaten with the whole force of the United States against them."

Secretary Arthur Murphy of the P. W. U. said.

He added: "I am in the way of the strike, and on arriving there found that he had been forced into such a tight place that he was actually cornered. He had been forced into a general strike directed world-wide. Doubtless President Deb's had good reason for the calling off."

He had no time to waste for a moment that the strikers were beaten and General Secretary Reichenbach of the National Guards-Workers Union came to his rescue. In this way he got a chance to return graciously. I suppose he will base his decision on the action of President Cleveland in announcing the strike off, and the fact that the strikers get beaten with the whole force of the United States against them."

Secretary Arthur Murphy of the P. W. U. said.

He added: "I am in the way of the strike, and on arriving there found that he had been forced into such a tight place that he was actually cornered. He had been forced into a general strike directed world-wide. Doubtless President Deb's had good reason for the calling off."

He had no time to waste for a moment that the strikers were beaten and General Secretary Reichenbach of the National Guards-Workers Union came to his rescue. In this way he got a chance to return graciously. I suppose he will base his decision on the action of President Cleveland in announcing the strike off, and the fact that the strikers get beaten with the whole force of the United States against them."

Secretary Arthur Murphy of the P. W. U. said.

He added: "I am in the way of the strike, and on arriving there found that he had been forced into such a tight place that he was actually cornered. He had been forced into a general strike directed world-wide. Doubtless President Deb's had good reason for the calling off."

He had no time to waste for a moment that the strikers were beaten and General Secretary Reichenbach of the National Guards-Workers Union came to his rescue. In this way he got a chance to return graciously. I suppose he will base his decision on the action of President Cleveland in announcing the strike off, and the fact that the strikers get beaten with the whole force of the United States against them."

Secretary Arthur Murphy of the P. W. U. said.

He added: "I am in the way of the strike, and on arriving there found that he had been forced into such a tight place that he was actually cornered. He had been forced into a general strike directed world-wide. Doubtless President Deb's had good reason for the calling off."

He had no time to waste for a moment that the strikers were beaten and General Secretary Reichenbach of the National Guards-Workers Union came to his rescue. In this way he got a chance to return graciously. I suppose he will base his decision on the action of President Cleveland in announcing the strike off, and the fact that the strikers get beaten with the whole force of the United States against them."

Secretary Arthur Murphy of the P. W. U. said.

He added: "I am in the way of the strike, and on arriving there found that he had been forced into such a tight place that he was actually cornered. He had been forced into a general strike directed world-wide. Doubtless President Deb's had good reason for the calling off."

He had no time to waste for a moment that the strikers were beaten and General Secretary Reichenbach of the National Guards-Workers Union came to his rescue. In this way he got a chance to return graciously. I suppose he will base his decision on the action of President Cleveland in announcing the strike off, and the fact that the strikers get beaten with the whole force of the United States against them."

Secretary Arthur Murphy of the P. W. U. said.

He added: "I am in the way of the strike, and on arriving there found that he had been forced into such a tight place that he was actually cornered. He had been forced into a general strike directed world-wide. Doubtless President Deb's had good reason for the calling off."

He had no time to waste for a moment that the strikers were beaten and General Secretary Reichenbach of the National Guards-Workers Union came to his rescue. In this way he got a chance to return graciously. I suppose he will base his decision on the action of President Cleveland in announcing the strike off, and the fact that the strikers get beaten with the whole force of the United States against them."

Secretary Arthur Murphy of the P. W. U. said.

He added: "I am in the way of the strike, and on arriving there found that he had been forced into such a tight place that he was actually cornered. He had been forced into a general strike directed world-wide. Doubtless President Deb's had good reason for the calling off."

He had no time to waste for a moment that the strikers were beaten and General Secretary Reichenbach of the National Guards-Workers Union came to his rescue. In this way he got a chance to return graciously. I suppose he will base his decision on the action of President Cleveland in announcing the strike off, and the fact that the strikers get beaten with the whole force of the United States against them."

Secretary Arthur Murphy of the P. W. U. said.

He added: "I am in the way of the strike, and on arriving there found that he had been forced into such a tight place that he was actually cornered. He had been forced into a general strike directed world-wide. Doubtless President Deb's had good reason for the calling off."

He had no time to waste for a moment that the strikers were beaten and General Secretary Reichenbach of the National Guards-Workers Union came to his rescue. In this way he got a chance to return graciously. I suppose he will base his decision on the action of President Cleveland in announcing the strike off, and the fact that the strikers get beaten with the whole force of the United States against them."

Secretary Arthur Murphy of the P. W. U. said.

He added: "I am in the way of the strike, and on arriving there found that he had been forced into such a tight place that he was actually cornered. He had been forced into a general strike directed world-wide. Doubtless President Deb's had good reason for the calling off."

He had no time to waste for a moment that the strikers were beaten and General Secretary Reichenbach of the National Guards-Workers Union came to his rescue. In this way he got a chance to return graciously. I suppose he will base his decision on the action of President Cleveland in announcing the strike off, and the fact that the strikers get beaten with the whole force of the United States against them."

Secretary Arthur Murphy of the P. W. U. said.